Ben Hammond – Platforms Director

Biography

Ben has almost 20 years' experience in financial services, and specifically in the platform space for the last 12.

Prior to joining Altus, he worked for several platforms, building and launching new products and propositions as well as navigating the complex world of regulatory change.

Ben works with a wide range of Altus clients across the UK and South Africa, helping them understand the future of the platform landscape, the impact change will have on running their businesses and how they can improve the efficiency of their operations.

Ben writes for and provides commentary to several well known financial services publications. He co-authored the Altus white papers "Giving your platform wings" and "It takes Allsorts" and his dream is to see all platforms in profit by 2025.
