Mark Andrews - Insurance Director

Biography

Mark has been working in Financial Services for 15 years and has been with Altus since 2007.

Having spent 15+ years in Financial Services, Mark set up the Insurance practice at Altus in 2016. With a proven track record of advising clients on challenging strategic initiatives alongside delivering large insurance change programmes, Mark has built a passionate team of insurance thought-leaders. His extensive knowledge of the UK insurance market and his relationships from within the insurance boardroom to the ever growing list of new InsurTechs, will continue to provide results for our clients. Mark makes regular appearances at insurance conferences and in industry publications and looks forward to continuing to connect people across the industry.
